Aims of Wah Yan Charity Marathon 2008

An all-round education includes the nurturing of the mind and the body. One of the most important aims of the Charity Running is to bring this message across to our students, so that they are encouraged not only to gain knowledge and academic achievements in their studies, but also to build up a healthy body and to nourish their mental strength through physical exercise. Before they are ready to face all kinds of challenges in society, students need to acquire some valuable qualities such as fortitude and patience, which can best be cultivated through the habit of continual physical training. In view of this objective, the School has organized this sport event to raise our students' awareness of fitness and health.

Last year, the Wah Yan One Family Foundation organized a walkathon and united the two Wah Yan in a meaningful project. Again, earlier in February this year, Prof. Sydney Chung Sheung Chee, the SARS hero of Hong Kong and a WYHK71 graduate, led a Wah Yan team to participate in the Standard Chartered Marathon. The two events have successfully promoted unity and the Wah Yan spirit. Following the two events, the Charity Running aims at furthering this spirit. We expect that all WahYanites will be proud to be part of the family.
