Report of Norman So WYK Development Fund

18 July 2012

Dear Wahyanites,

Since its establishment in December 2008 and the Fund-Raising Dinner, the Norman So Fund has been in operations for some years.

We would like to take this opportunity to report that the Norman So Fund has rendered financial assistance to students, staff and workers of WYK on divers occasions in accordance with its charitable objectives with details set out below for reference:-

Fiscal Year	Expenditures Spent on its Charitable Objectives
2009/2010	HK$82,101
2010/2011	HK$365,562
2011/2012	HK$181,268

Currently the Norman So Fund has available bank balances of slightly over HK$1 million. We offer sincere thanks to those who have donated generously to support the Fund in the past. Although we do not intend to hold any major fund-raising events in the near future, we would welcome any further donations to the Norman So Fund so that it can be kept in a healthy condition to meet further needs in the coming years. The Norman So Fund is a recognized charitable organization in Hong Kong with s.88 status under the Inland Revenue Ordinance. Any donation in excess of $100 is deductible for tax purposes and a receipt will be issued to the donor in that regard.

Yours faithfully,

Norman So
Chairman
