15th September 2012

Dear Wahyanites, Parents, Staff Members and Friends of Wah Yan,

In his letter to the Wah Yan Community on 8 March 2012, Fr Deignan reported to you that about $92 million had been raised and more than $30 million had been appropriated to the two Wah Yan Colleges to support small class teaching in lower forms, teacher formation programmes and many student activities since 2008/2009. Fr Deignan also mentioned that he wished to go on with his Dream of Wah Yan because our Schools had to offer more attention and care to our senior form students under the new secondary school curriculum.

Subsequently, our Board has resolved to grant $7.5 million each year to the Schools for the next five years (from 2012-2017) to sustain the teaching initiatives and student programmes mentioned above. Unfortunately, this funding is far short of the estimated total of $13 million per year if our Schools wish to extend small class teaching to the upper forms. Under the prevailing economic environment, our investment returns and incomes have not been sufficient to provide the required annual funding and we accordingly have to use part of our investment principal to keep up with the $7.5-million annual grant pledged for the next 5 years. We are now facing a pressing need to gather more donations and support to sustain our work for young Wahyanites in longer term.

Since earlier this year, we have set out again to seek support for the Dream Campaign through individual major gifts and various fundraising initiatives, of which the Alan Tam WYOFF Concert due to be held on Saturday, 22nd December 2012 at the HKCEC will be the highlight of the year. Fr Deignan, our Dreamer, will stage the Concert by performing the title “I’ll Like to Teach the World to Sing” that calls upon people to keep each other company for a little while. This will be a sensational moment to reunify the Wah Yan Community and renew our efforts to galvanise support for our students and good of Wah Yan.

We appeal for your support by sponsoring Fr Deignan to perform on stage. There is neither a ceiling nor a floor for donation but your generosity will mean a lot for rebuilding a unity in Wah Yan. Please help us to follow our “Dream” for better Wah Yans by sending back the donation/ticket ordering slip enclosed by 31 October 2012. If you need further information please call Monty Fong on 9092 9433/2891 9970.

Again thank you for your selfless support for Wah Yan.

With very best wishes,
