

23rd June 2014

Dear Fellow Wahyanites and Friends of Wah Yan,

Our two Wah Yan colleges are going to celebrate their 90th and 95th anniversaries from September 2014 onwards with a heartfelt gratitude to our most loving God and to all of you.

Since 2007, the Wah Yan One Family Foundation has launched the Fr Deignan's Dream Campaign and raised over HK$100 million through our beloved alumni and friends. Small class teaching, teacher formation and whole person development programmes for students in the two Wah Yans have been implemented since 2008. Thereafter, around HK$9 million was allocated each year to support these initiatives, leaving a balance of less than $30 million by now.

Our Reflections and the Affirmation by The University of Hong Kong

Over the years, our efforts have started to bear fruit, as evidenced in the recent evaluation report conducted by The University of Hong Kong. Our teachers and students commended the improved teaching and learning environment, where they have enjoyed a better mutual understanding, care and interaction hence engagement in their relationships and learning motivation. Our school sports teams, musicians and choirs, debate and drama teams have also achieved good results in different inter-school contests.

The report also pointed to the needs of our devoted teachers for administrative support and enhancement in Ignatian pedagogy and professional development. We need our Ignatian educators and staff members to be the "Men and Women for and with" our young Wahyanites alongside their paths of development, especially in this ever-changing environment and demanding curriculum. Thus in the coming years, we aim to provide more resources to further develop our staff members, so that they will take even greater pride and ownership in nurturing our future Wahyanites.

The Wah Yan campuses yield a rich, fond collective memory for many alumni and friends. Besides, thanks to the generosity of old boys and supporters, Wah Yan Hong Kong will open its new school hall complex and Wah Yan Kowloon will open a new artificial turf football pitch in late 2014, offering new hubs for teaching and learning, union, bonding and collaboration activities between students, teachers, parents and alumni of the two Schools. That said however, facelift projects in our buildings and facilities are also imminent because we have to provide a comfortable and sustainable learning environment for our teachers and young gentlemen to do well in their daily school life.

From Dream to Reality – Addressing the Emerging Needs of our Schools

Now you can see our Dream is becoming a Reality. It is therefore our duty to sustain and further enhance the three worthwhile initiatives, namely small class teaching and whole person development for students, teacher and staff member formation, and campus maintenance for the next 5 years and beyond to carry our Schools forward. To fulfil this task, we need not less than HK$12 million each year to sustain our work. As such, we have set a fundraising target of HK$60 million for the upcoming anniversaries fundraising campaign.

The Anniversaries Celebration Programmes

With the theme “Heritage Plus” (華博傳仁), the 90th/95th Anniversaries Fundraising Campaign aims to gather Wahyanites and friends of different times to celebrate the 90th (Wah Yan Kowloon) and 95th (Wah Yan Hong Kong) birthdays of the Schools and amass contributions from these philanthropic people towards sustaining the heritage and traditions of Wah Yan. Four meaningful events will be organized from September 2014 onwards:

1. Walkathon, Sunday, 26th October 2014 at 8:00 am from Wah Yan College, Hong Kong to Wah Yan College, Kowloon, where a Fun Day follows
2. Celebration Dinner, Saturday, 6th December 2014 at 7:00 pm, School Hall, Wah Yan College, Kowloon
3. Jesuit Education Forum, Saturday, 11th April 2015, time to be advised, School Hall, Wah Yan College, Hong Kong
4. Fundraising Concert, either Wednesday, 8th July 2015 (at the HKCEC) or Saturday, 11th July 2015 (at the Hong Kong Coliseum) at 8:00 pm

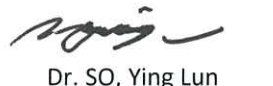

Renowned scholars, distinguished guests and alumni will be invited to join these events to share our joy and gratitude together. We therefore call upon you, Wahyanites and friends of Wah Yan, to render your unflinching support for the good of our future Wahyanites. Detail of each event is enclosed for reference overleaf. Your participation and generosity will enable the two Schools to become a bigger Reality in the centenary, a new chapter in five years. Please access <http://youtu.be/Kgya7XT7sqE> for more information on our plan.

May the God who has loved Wah Yans all along shower you with all the graces that you need in your quest for excellence, joy and integrity! Thank you.

With very best wishes and gratitude,
